Notice to all Ministries

We would like to print announcements in our bulletin regarding all of your meetings. Please be sure to have the announcement to Barbara on Wednesday mornings for weekend bulletin. No late comers

Let's Talk: Heart to Heart.

Very soon we'll enter a time of commemoration for those beloved ones who passed away, to eternal life.. We, in turn, are still grieving. Our lives are not the same without them. We are able to find consolation in our Lord Jesus Christ, in Whom we will find the restoration of all. Eternal life in Heaven is total unity with our Lord Jesus Christ with who we'll enjoy the fulfillment of our lives and the lives of others. Our eternal harbor is all about love. This consolation makes us peaceful. So, we pray, one of our ways to love. We pray for those around us, making a daily journey, climbing with us the mountain of holy life. And we are praying for those who are advanced in this journey. Praying means loving and means we are in touch with them.

In each Catholic parish, the Eucharist is celebrated for those who died. It means we ask Our Lord to grant eternal happiness to them through His Sacrifice that He offered for all the world. We offer the sacrifice of Jesus the whole year, but in this coming month, in November, all Masses will be offered for our deceased. Let us know their names writing down on the papers or on the envelop mailed to each of you. These names will be put on the altar in our monthly commemoration.

On the day of All Souls, November 2nd, we pray for the Divine Indulgence from God through His Church and offer it for those who died to help them to reach Heaven from cleansing in Purgatory. This Indulgence is built up on the merits of Our Lord and the Saints. We simply ask that they will be granted to others. Our expectations are based on limitless love in Heaven. To receive Indulgence on that day we need to be in the state of Grace, so come to confession if you need, say prayer for the Church and the pope and visit the nearby cemeteries praying for those who died.

On the first Sunday of November we'd like, as usually, to honor the life of those who died the last year, by carrying a carnation to put in a vase while the name is pronounced. Let those who arrange it know you want to have this commemoration. Please read the announcements in this bulletin.

God Bless Father Andrew

Disabilities Awareness Sabbath 2007:.....

Having grown up within and around the disability community, I have a lifelong experience and insight into disability awareness. For twelve years, from 1st Grade to 12th Grade, I wore an orthopedic steel brace on my left leg, to compensate for and correct my wayward gait. I spent countless hours as a child in physical therapy, where I learned how fortunate I am. The vast array of physical and developmental disabilities I saw about me on a weekly basis made me aware of how important it is to the disabled in the world to have the opportunity to be included in the fullness of life, and not left aside or be shuttered from view. While at CSUS, I met a fellow student who has become one of my closest friends. He is also disabled, having been born with a sight defect. Aspiring to be a newspaper journalist, he has ended up instead in public service both in California and Washington, D.C. He has become an expert on the Americans With Disabilities Act, and written much of its enabling legislation. In January 2001, he founded his own company to advocate for the disabled. Through him and his work I have learned so much more about how inclusion and empowerment allow the disabled to be all that they can be. On this Disabilities Awareness Sabbath may we renew our commitment to inclusiveness and empowerment of all persons in our homes and neighborhoods, schools and workplaces, in our churches and in our hearts.....God Love You for Loving them, Fr. Troy
