Question of the Week

“God is able to change bad events into good or even events of joyful victory! How does this help me trust in God every time and in everything?”

*Dear Brothers and Sisters throughout the world,
Men and women of good will!*

Christ is risen! Peace to you! Today we celebrate the great mystery, the foundation of Christian faith and hope: Jesus of Nazareth, the Crucified One, has risen from the dead on the third day according to the Scriptures. We listen today with renewed emotion to the announcement proclaimed by the angels on the dawn of the first day after the Sabbath, to Mary of Magdala and to the women at the sepulchre: “Why do you search among the dead for one who is alive? He is not here, he is risen!” (Lk 24:5-6).

...Respect Life

In Thanksgiving For all the Presentation Parishioners, Priests and Religious who fasted, prayed and especially those who were able to prayerfully witness on the sidewalk at Planned Parenthood.

Live and hearts were changed, babies saved, whole families felt the presence of God's Mercy and Love from folks in prayer and those who reached out to offer assistance to the moms. The evening vigils ere awesome, unifying moments where folks from multi-parishes met to Praise God and remember in prayer all the walking wounded patients and their babies, the Planned Parenthood Staff and the women who chose life. Thank you for all that you have done to support the 40 day vigil for Life this Lent +2008.

Christ is Risen. Alleluja!!!

To all of us parishioners and to our beloved ones, to all people of good will, priests of this parish and parish staff send Easter greetings.

May the Almighty Christ, who overpowered the kingdom of sin and death lavish His mercy upon us to overcome the enemy of our salvation.

May Jesus, who had appeared to the frightened Apostles and granted them the first Gift of His Resurrection: His divine Peace, fill us with the Grace of unity.

May all the Gifts of the Holy Spirit in the triumphant era of the Christ's victory renew our faith, empower our love and make our hope persistent. Alleluja.

Fathers: Andrew & Troy and the parish staff.

Come celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday in the Parish on Sunday March 30, 2008.

'I am love and mercy itself.... Let no soul fear to draw near to me, even though its sins be as scarlet.... My mercy is greater than your sins, and those of the entire world.... I let my Sacred Heart be pierced with a lance, thus opening wide the source of mercy for you. Come then with trust to draw graces from this fountain.... The graces of my mercy are drawn by the means of one vessel only, and that is trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive.'

St. Faustina (Journal entries 1074, 699, 1485, 1578)

I would like to express my gratitude for all the prayers & support you have shown me over the last few months. Thank you all for your cards, masses and prayers for my sister, I was truly overwhelmed. I want to thank all the volunteers who kept the office running while I was gone. You all are awesome! A special thanks to Father Andrew for allowing me the extra time to spend with my sister while she was so ill. God Bless each and every one of you! Barbara Fay
